

• AGORA PÔLE DE RECHERCHE SUR LE CANCER
Lusanne, CH

2013–2018

The AGORA Pôle de recherche sur le cancer brings together 400 scientists and practitioners under one roof, providing research and workspace in a collaborative environment. The design centers on a holistic concept that integrates formal and informal work areas to foster communication and exchange within the cancer research center. It is located in Lausanne on the campus of the CHUV (Centre hospitalier universitaire vaudois) within sight of Lake Geneva.
