

• DIGITEO LABS - 3 RESEARCH BUILDINGS Moulon, Saclay, Palaiseau, FR

2007–2012

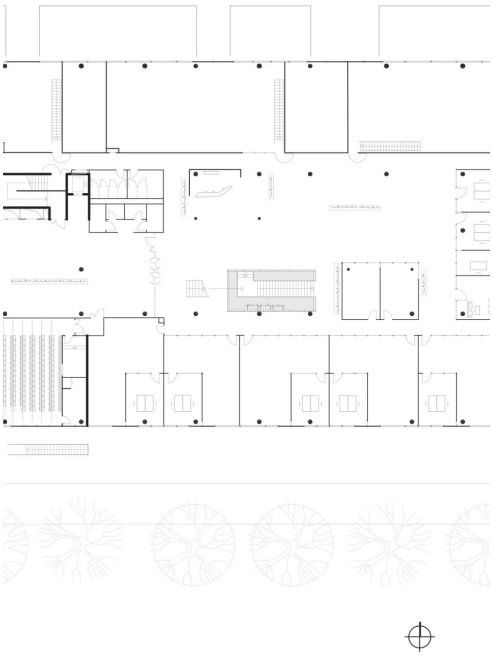

The Digiteo Labs consist of three ecologically responsible buildings dedicated to the research of information and digitalization technologies, simulation and automation processes, and materials science. Located at three different sites southwest of Paris—Saclay, Moulon and Palaiseau—the buildings are designed to accommodate laboratories, workshops, offices, and conference rooms.
